City's Site Proved To Be Indian Camp

Historical Society Hears Interesting Facts And Inspects Old Relics

Evidence that the mesa, now known as Marlborough Terrace, once the Churchill property and originally the pioneer Smith Place, was an Indian camping spot was brought out in the informal discussion by Arthur Carter following Lindley Bynum's lecture before the Sierra Madre Historical Society, on Friday evening at the City Hall.

Many Indian relics of the past, chiefly some very fine mortars and pestles have been discovered from time to time. Two very symmetrical mortars upturned on the mesa were incorporated in the masonry of the pebble stone fire place in the original club house built in Sierra Madre Canyon some years ago, and there are several others owned by the older residents. The promontory across the canyon where the Easter cross is erected also is an Indian camp site, it has been proved.

Mr. Bynum in his talk of the ceremonies of the Southwest Indian was able as an authority to give a new light on the tribes which roamed through this territory, as being far superior in intellect knowledge of cultural crafts and philosophy than the

Kiwanis Club Will Place Local Boys Ball Team In Field

"The Development of Kiwanis" was the subject of a talk on Tuesday at the luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club by Lieutenant Governor Harry Lane, of San Gabriel.

Dr. John Woehler told of the need here of supervised amusement for young people who are without work or funds, and reported that he has a baseball team in the making composed of local boys. The club unanimously agreed to support this team financially.

The need of Kiwanis cooperation in public welfare work throughout the county was revealed by City Manager Al S. Myers. He recently attended a meeting of the many welfare organizations, where he learned that the situation is desperate. In the county there are over 400,000 heads of families depending upon public work and in Sierra Madre alone there are 1050 people in the same condition.

Series Of Socials For The Unemployed At Local Churches

Arrangements have been made between Rev. Father Hyacinth Clarey and Dean Arnold Bode to hold the social gatherings for the unemployed alternately at St. Rita's auditorium and the Parish House, of the Ascension, beginning Monday, May 1, at St. Rita's.

The Church of the Ascension is being painted, three porches being finished by T. Simon. On Monday, May 16, the Parish House will be opened again for the second social for the unemployed and their friends.

EARLY START OF ART LEAGUE CLASSES ASSURED AS FUNDS ARE DONATED BY CITIZENS

By Henry Johns Haverhurst

Everyone connected with the Art League is all a-twitter, for our dream is about to come true. Within two or three weeks actual work of the classes will start. The old barn—our home—so generously turned over for the League's use by Miss Lydia Webster, is fast assuming a new dignity. Walls stained by rusty, old whitewash are rapidly being covered with heavy, neutral-toned wall board complimentary to the future exhibits of students' work.

What has kept the League "hog-tied" for so many months was lack of housing facilities and no means of raising money for the most meager needs. The League has intimately known all about the darkest hours—and then—the sun came up like thunder, for no sooner had the housing problem been solved than that of obtaining a little money to start things going was solved, too. Two of our public spirited residents interested in the cultural development of the community started the ball rolling with hard cash.

First to crash the gates was

Vaudeville Show By PTA Is Arranged For Friday, May 12

The date for the vaudeville show to be presented by Gray Buckner and Madge Nessley as a benefit for the Parent-Teachers Association has been definitely set for May 12. The show will be held in the Grammar School auditorium and the proceeds will be used to carry on the milk fund welfare work of the association. Buckner and Nessley are producers of the Baby Star Review. Sierra Madre representatives who are attending the district convention in Pasadena this week at the Civic Auditorium include Mrs. E. E. Pulling, president, Mrs. W. C. Dalzell and Mrs. E. R. Thompson.

One Man Art Exhibition At Gallery

Southwest Scenes Featured At Showing Of Brush And Pen Work Of Phil Paradise

Although a young man, Phil Paradise, who will hold a one man exhibition during May at the Little Gallery in the City Hall, has exhibited in numerous museums and art galleries in the Southwest and the Pacific Coast. A reception in honor of the artist will be held next Thursday evening, May 4, at 8 o'clock, at the City Hall when the exhibit opens.

Many of Mr. Paradise's watercolors to be shown here will be sketches made last summer while on a trip through the gold camps of Northern California and Nevada. Among the oils will be portraits, landscapes and compositions. He also works with pencil and has produced many clever etchings. His collection has been painted in California, Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada and Old Mexico.

Hostesses for the opening reception will be Mrs. John H. Osgood, Mrs. George F. Ferris, Mrs. Henry Gordon Coulter, Mrs. H. A. N. Addis and Miss Jessie Dunning.

Observations

By Lee Shippey

I am notoriously fond of dogs. I often write about Brownie, our faithful Neardale, and have tried to show dog-lovers what loathsome murderers they are. All the same, I feel that police dogs are becoming a menace in Southern California and all which show signs of bad temper should be muzzled. A couple of years ago one of them ran fully 200 feet from his home to attack our boy John, then seven year old, and if the dog had not been beaten off it might have killed the boy. He still bears the marks. Tuesday another police dog here attacked our eldest boy, simply because the boy was playing with another dog and the police dog was jealous. The dog tore the boy's mouth so that stitches were necessary. Had the dog's fangs caught his throat instead of his mouth it might have been serious.

I'm fond of dogs but fonder of people. Dangerous dogs should be muzzled, when at large. And a large percentage of police dogs get dangerous when they grow older.

Henry W. Fisher—one of our most recent residents. While Mr. Fisher hailed originally from that good old state of Pennsylvania, he wandered over to New York, graduated from Cornell—became one of the country's outstanding electrical engineers and after many years of service retired and leasurably roamed the Nation's landscape looking for an ideal spot in which to live. Upon inspecting Sierra Madre, Mr. Fisher confesses he has found his Utopia and with his highly developed hobby, that of taking motion pictures, he is now occupying his spare time taking "shots" locally that he has generously offered to show at the League's home at some future date.

Upon hearing of the League's new lease on life, through THE NEWS columns, Mr. Fisher sent a check for five dollars thereby electing himself, in the future hall of Art League history as the first patron to substantially record his faith in the League in language understood by all.

We had just barely accus-

Many Coming To Bethany's Conference

Ten Noted Speakers To Address Bible Gathering On Tuesday And Wednesday

The Ninth Annual Bible Conference will be held in Bethany Church next Tuesday and Wednesday, May 2nd and 3rd. This is an event that is eagerly looked for from year to year by increasing numbers of people throughout Los Angeles county. Many of the speakers chosen on this program are heard frequently in other large conferences elsewhere, their names and messages drawing large audiences.

The conferences are sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Society of Bethany Church and are opened by its beloved President Emerita, Mrs. John Lowe. She is the real "mother" of the conference, for it was she who suggested the first one in 1924. Her messages each year are full of vital interest and thoroughly practical and inspirational.

Miss Josephine Nelson, one of the speakers on this year's program, is a Bible teacher known for her fine, bright, helpful lessons. Miss Natalie Romans always attracts; for she is sure to bring a cheery enthusiastic, refreshing message.

Mrs. William B. Gantz is a much sought speaker, because her note of encouragement and victory is one that finds ready response in the hearts of folk who are so harassed by the pressure of problems in these days.

Dr. Louis T. Talbot, pastor of the Church of the Open Door, Los Angeles, and also well known for his radio broadcasts, will speak on a subject of unusual interest.

Mrs. Harold Graham is field secretary of the Bible Clubs which Milo Jamison has organized in the various colleges and universities. Her subject, "Undimmed Radiance" has a special significance. Mrs. J. E. Jaderquist always brings the practical, helpful, comforting type of message that quiets, soothes and rests. The burdened ones, Miss Nola John-

Noisy Roosters Cause First Suit Under Nuisance Law

The war on Sierra Madre's night crowing roosters was started yesterday when the first complaint under the city's nuisance ordinance was filed before Judge Thomas W. Neale. Mrs. Carrie Fagge, of 363 Sycamore Place was summoned to appear at 10 o'clock this morning for arraignment on the charge of violating Section 21 or Ordinance No. 342, making it a misdemeanor to keep noisy fowls or animals within the city limits.

Mrs. Lela Roulette, next door neighbor of Mrs. Fagge, is the chief complainant. She has sought to file a complaint for many months but Judge Neale refused to issue a complaint without substantiating witnesses who might tend to show that the nuisance complained of disturbed the neighborhood, not merely an individual.

Mrs. Alice Carter, who lives in the rear of 355 East Alameda avenue and Mrs. Myrtle A. Weese, of Canon Drive, have now joined in the complaint. All three complainants live within 400 feet of the Fagge home. They charge that the Fagges keep "one or more" roosters that crow not only during the early morning hours, but throughout the night, greatly to their annoyance and distress.

When Mrs. Fagge is arraigned this morning she may elect to be tried by jury or to leave the case solely in the hands of Judge Neale. In any event the trial will be at a later date.

Sierra Madreans Feature Festival At Wilson Jr. High

Coronation of a flower queen was the main feature of the Woodrow Wilson Junior High assembly on Friday, April 21. The program opened with the crowning of the queen, Marian Mays, followed by a dance of homage by Helen Jackson, Betty Patterson, Clara Mae Thompson and Nina Belle Leale. Vivian Bailey was one of the court jesters. The last number was a dance of joy given by Rosa Karpf, Grace Berka and Floretta Brown.

In Class 1, Virginia Stimpfing took second place for baskets. In the miscellaneous Class 7, Katherine Norris earned second place. Hugh Elkin took first place, George Groth, second and Harold Wolff won honorable mention in the hobby group No. 2, which included match boxes, pin, etc.

Local Minister Is Speaker At Church Meet In San Diego

The forty-fifth annual meeting of the Congregational Women's Missionary Society of Southern California was held in San Diego on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday this week. Congregational pastors from all parts of Southern California were speakers at the seven sessions.

Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard, representing the local church, who spoke on Wednesday afternoon, talked on "Re-Thinking Missions Reviewed." Mrs. J. Earl Gossard, Mrs. Myrtle G. Hill and Miss Caroline Fuller attended as delegates from the Woman's Missionary Society of the Congregational Church.

Real Chance To Help City's Unemployed

Proceeds Of Real Good Show Tonight Go Toward Buying Of Necessities

The welfare of 1200 Sierra Madreans, members of the unemployed army and their families, is dependent upon the attendance at a vaudeville show in the grammar school auditorium tonight. The proceeds will go towards the purchase of staples other than fruit, vegetables and foods that the unemployed are unable to obtain through their barter system—also to pay overdue gas bills where discontinuance of the supply is imminent. It will be an opportunity for local citizens to show their appreciation of the efforts by the jobless to help themselves and prevent their families from becoming public charges.

The association has secured really good, professional vaudeville talent and has sent out an appeal to the people of the community to set aside tonight for the family's evening out. The admission is that of the most reasonable of movie theatres, 25c.

Chris Traynor, well-known stage comedian, will be master of ceremonies. On the program will be L. G. Hoobyar, world renowned opera singer; six acts of vaudeville; eight-year-old Betty Rose Plane, who will give two and ballet dances, and the Great Torrini, whose act is one of mirth, magic and mystery.

The unemployed association plans to present vaudeville entertainment the last Friday evening of each month in an effort to help raise money to "help them to help themselves."

FAMED ARTIST LEADS CHORUS OF PRAISE FOR FORBIDDEN MIRACLE PAINTING BY DEWEY

Jean Mannheim, internationally famous artist, was among the more than 300 people from all parts of Southern California who came to Sierra Madre last Saturday and Sunday to attend the open house at Alfred James Dewey's Marlborough Terrace studio and avail themselves of the opportunity to see his painting, "The First Miracle," which was denied a place in the present exhibition of hometown artists in the Little Gallery at the City Hall.

More than a score of other artists or more or less note came from Laguna Beach, Carmel and other art colonies and from Pasadena, Los Angeles, Palm Springs, Riverside and Claremont, which also sent a delegation of college professors. Without exception the artists were unstinting in their praise of the huge Dewey canvass. The famous Mannheim was probably the most appreciative of all. He fairly raved about it—the idea and the execution. And when he had returned to his own studio in Pasadena he wrote

Licenses For Cats Demanded Of City Council

The licensing of cats in Sierra Madre in the hope that their number will be greatly decreased and bird life in and about the city preserved, was strongly urged in a communication from Miss Virginia Miller of 87 North Auburn avenue, which was read at Wednesday's meeting of the City Council.

The communication pointed out that many of the cats roaming about go unfed by their owners and are practically wild. Song birds are so plentiful here that the felines feel no occasion to hunt gophers, Miss Miller said, and she had never known of a cat here to catch gophers which are a source of endless annoyance to householders and ranchers alike, especially to the householder who prides herself upon the care of her home place.

Rare Shawls Come Out For Exhibition

Romance Of Days Long Gone At Showing Of Over 100 Old And Modern Examples

By Estella Fink Nichols

Romance enveloped the Ladies' Parlor of the Congregational Church on Tuesday afternoon at a wonderful exhibition of rare old and more modern shawls. The fire and beauty of Spain, the splendor of Italy, the mystery of China and the Arabs of Persia, the snow tipped mountains of Japan, Scotland with its bagpipes, our own early American history, lords and ladies, all were mirrored in the exhibit which contained over 100 shawls.

Mrs. Estelle G. McVicker, of Pasadena, recited a reading, "The Eleventh Hour" by Janet Craig. Mrs. McVicker was guest for the afternoon of Mrs. Martha D. Rust.

Although the age of many of the shawls shown could not be determined, perhaps the oldest was a Paisley owned by Lady Tinsbury, of London, England, in 1777 and given to Lady Butterfield in 1802, who in turn presented it to Grace Butterfield Brindley in 1834. Mrs. Brindley gave the shawl to Mrs. Gladys McCaslin, who considers it one of her most valued possessions.

A camel's hair shawl, which is the property of Mrs. Leonard A. Wamock, is believed to have been made either in Egypt or India. It was purchased by her grandfather for his bride on a trip around the world. Literally thousands of small pieces of camel's hair cloth are embroidered together into a rich paisley effect. Experts value the shawl at $1,000.

Sixteen exhibits from Spain, including 12 rich shawls, two scarfs and two mantillas, were shown by Mrs. J. Borradaile.

A shoulder shawl, the property of Mrs. C. W. Jones, worn in the Civil War by Mrs. Jones' father, a cavalry officer, was the center of much attention.

The early days of colonization in Kansas were recalled to mind by a red sunbonnet and shawl, exhibited by Mrs. Marie P. Wat-

a letter about his visit to the Editor of THE NEWS in which he expressed himself about the picture, as follows:

"Mr. Dewey's picture of Christ changing water into wine is a real artistic achievement—a protest against hypocrisy, a message to the world. He had something to say. Pictures like this are rarely painted in this age."

"The picture tells its own story. Each figure has its meaning and is well drawn. The continuity of the figures and ensemble of the picture is fine. I do not wonder it could not hang in the Sierra Madre exhibition—it is too good."

"Whistler's 'Mother' was twice refused in London—all great pictures have had more or less the same fate. I do congratulate Mr. Dewey on his achievement."

Mannheim won a place in "Who's Who." It says of him that his paintings "will live." He is a member of the London School of Art, the California Art Club, Laguna Beach Art Club and the Pasadena Society of Artists, besides being the founder of the Stickney Memorial School of Art. The walls of his studio are studded with medals and ribbons won by his paintings here and abroad."

Season's Second Ball Game Here

The second ball game of the district Legion League season will be played at the school athletic field tonight when the team from City Terrace meets the local soldiers in what promises to be another exciting game.

There are 11 teams in the Legion League this year and the schedule for the first half of the season does not call for the appearance of all of them in this city. The towns represented in the League are Sierra Madre, Pasadena, City Terrace, Monterey Park, Baldwin Park, San Marino, Arcadia, Alhambra, Azusa, East Pasadena and Temple City.

This will be the only appearance of City Terrace here during the season's first half.

E. W. Camp To Talk On Railroads Future At Forum Meeting

"The Future of the Railroads" will be the topic of Judge E. W. Camp at the regular meeting of the Forum, Tuesday evening, May 2, in the City Hall. Judge Camp will also discuss briefly, other requested subjects. Mrs. Grace B. Caulkin has taken as her subject "What of This?" and will invite the members to give their views on pertinent topics. "Other People's Money" by Justice Brandies, which was to have been reviewed by Mrs. Caulkin at the last meeting of the Forum is being obtained by the local library and will be outlined at some future meeting of the Forum.

Locals Lose First Game To Pasadena

Opener Of Legion Baseball Season Goes 12 Innings With Thrills Aplenty

Sierra Madre's soldiers dropped the first game of the baseball season to their most hated, dangerous rivals, Pasadena's veterans, at the school athletic field here on Friday night by a score of 7 to 4. More than 700 of the loyal home rooters braved the chill air to encourage the locals in what proved to be another exciting 12-inning battle.

If any one thing in addition to several bad breaks, can be charged with the defeat, it was poor baserunning, though the locals were also out. For the first five innings it was a duel between the opposing hurlers, Pratt and Palmer, who were the moundsmen in the series of hectic contests between the two teams last year.

In the first five innings on Friday each pitcher struck out 10 men and allowed but a single hit. Sierra Madre broke the scoreless tie in the fifth inning when Pratt reached first on an error by Morris, went to second on a passed ball and scored when Olsen's short fly was fumbled.

Pasadena came right back in the first half of the sixth inning scoring four runs after two were out. What should have been an easy out went for a hit and then the fire-works started. Four successive hits that followed scored four runs. Sierra Madre got another run across across in the sixth when Welch singled and scored when Bailey made a bad fumble of Young's grounder.

Sierra Madre scored again in the eighth when Young singled, was sacrificed to second and

Mrs. Ida E. Clarke Passes Away Here

Mrs. Ida E. Clarke, of 78 South Hermosa avenue, passed away on Wednesday evening at the home of her niece, Mrs. Irving N. Ward, 109 East Grand View avenue. She was born 77 years ago at Naugatuck, Conn., and has been a resident of Sierra Madre for a number of years.

Mrs. Clarke is survived by one brother, F. O. Nichols, of 45 Olive street; a nephew, Robert Nichols, of Los Angeles, and four nieces, Mrs. I. N. Ward, Mrs. Ralph Russell, Mrs. Beatrice Kelterborn, of Sierra Madre, and Mrs. Marguerite Heidrich, of Los Angeles. The body will be sent to Naugatuck, Conn., for funeral services and interment.

ELABORATE CELEBRATION OF MONASTERY'S ANNIVERSARY IS ARRANGED FOR SUNDAY

The first anniversary of the opening of the Passionists Monastery and retreat house on Monte Oliva is to be the occasion on Sunday of an elaborate celebration, quite as colorful as the exercises that marked the dedication of the structure last May. It is expected to bring thousands of people to Sierra Madre.

The occasion will feature the first retreat rally of the Laymen's Retreat League and the celebration of the Feast of St. Paul of the Cross, founder of the Passionist Fathers.

A procession of 500 retreatants, a panegyric of the life of St. Paul of the Cross by Very Rev. Edwin Roman C. P., Rector of the Passionist Monastery, an address by the Hon. A. I. McCormick, president of the Holy Name Union, vocal numbers by the Retreatants Choir and the well known boys' surplined choir of St. Elizabeth's Parish, of Altadena, are to be features of the rally.

Monsignor John Cawley, Vicar General of the Diocese is to preside over the program and to conclude the rally with a ben-

Politics In Move To Halt Cities Bill

Sierra Madre Faction Seeks To Kill Improvement Act At Sacramento

Word comes from Sacramento that the leaders of a Sierra Madre political faction are attempting to prevent the passage through the Legislature of a law endorsed by many of the sixth class cities, Chambers of Commerce, and unemployed relief units of Southern California designed to improve the various communities through the use of Reconstruction Finance Corporation funds while greatly relieving the unemployment situation.

Known as Assembly Bill 2347, introduced by Assemblyman Frank G. Martin, of this district, the measure passed the Assembly with only four negative votes following receipt by the legislators of a circular letter sent out from this city attacking it and its sponsor and denouncing the city administration here.

The proposed law would give sixth class cities of the State the right to avail themselves of the opportunities for inexpensive improvements and unemployment relief that were contained in a local ordinance under which dirt streets of Sierra Madre were being improved and work provided for the local men who find themselves without jobs. The ordinance was known as No. 348 in Sierra Madre and was attacked in the courts through injunction proceedings by the same local political element that is now fighting the Martin measure at the State capitol. The Superior court here held that the local ordinance conflicted with a Statewide improvement act and held it invalid, thus bringing to an end a project looking to the paving of five miles of dirt streets and that was furnishing employment to practically all of the city's jobless.

Other cities became interested in the possibilities of the local ordinance which was patterned after and almost identical with similar ordinances that have been effective in Pasadena and Alhambra for several years. As a result a bill to bring its operation within the law was entrusted to Assemblyman Martin.

Briefly the Martin measure would permit the paving of dirt streets by labor paid by R.F.C. funds upon petition of 80 per cent of the abutting property owners who agree to pay for the materials used on the work. Expensive legal and engineering costs that generally make paving jobs very expensive, were eliminated. As the ordinance from which the Martin measure is taken was operated here, owners of 50 foot lots had the streets in front of their properties paved for as little as $7 and $7.50 a lot, a practically unheard of procedure.

The situation at Sacramento and the provisions of the Martin measure are described in a letter

NOT A BAD THOUGHT

The current session of the California Legislature has thrown the spotlight on one of the basic weaknesses in present legislative procedure—the drafting and adoption of legislation in mad haste, often ill-timed and ill-considered, with the fate of entire industries being disposed of in 15 minute committee hearings.

The 30-day recesses between the first and second halves of the Legislature, while intended to give the public time to consider pending legislation, is far too short for that purpose.

Touching on this phase of the problem is Assembly Constitutional Amendment 65, by Assemblyman Fred Roberts of Los Angeles. Roberts' measure would provide for a one-month session for the introduction of bills and action on the State budget, but with no enactment of legislation except urgency matters. This would be followed by a recess of 11 months, during which bills could be thoroughly studied by public and legislators alike, with the voters contacting their respective representatives in their home communities, free from harassment and outside pressure.

After the 11-month recess the legislators would return to Sacramento to separate the wheat from the chaff and enact the legislation which mature deliberation had proved worthwhile.

While some objections might be made to the Roberts' plan, there is much to commend it. At least the present bifurcated session, with its 30-day recess, has not fulfilled its purpose.

Four Measures Of Local Assemblyman Have Become Laws

Four bills introduced in the Legislature by Assemblyman Frank G. Martin, of this district, have passed finally in both branches, been signed by the governor and are now laws.

Assembly Bill No. 271 provides that grand jurors must take the oath of allegiance to the Constitution of the United States and of California. Strangely enough, this had not been put into the statutes heretofore.

Assembly Bill No. 1406 abolishes the publication of the Blue Book, held to be an unnecessary State publication, whose principal purpose was to pamper the vanity of officials. This bill will save the State many thousands of dollars.

Assembly Bills Nos. 2127 and 2128 are companion measures, permitting exchange of property in settling estates where it seems advisable. The statutes now require that all property belonging to an estate must be sold, if disposed of at all, whereas there are situations in which it would be more advantageous to exchange property than to sell it.

DEFENDS DEWEY'S MIRACLE PICTURE

To the Editor of The Sierra Madre News: "Controversial" was the word used to explain the exclusion of Alfred Dewey's miracle picture from the current exhibit by local artists in Sierra Madre's City Hall. From a diplomatic viewpoint the word was well chosen, since its validity can be challenged only upon very broad grounds.

Conceding that we are dealing with a reason and not an excuse, just why should any creative artist be subject to either dictation or suppression in the matter of his choice of material, except upon grounds of moral offensiveness? Who or what is the authority which decrees that artists, sculptors, poets, novelists and playwrights shall be relegated to a never-never land of dreams and fancies touching not upon subjects controversial? Surely, the notion is as unjust as it is undemocratic. Must art remain devoid of ideas in order to be art?

Mr. Dewey has portrayed the Founder of Christianity caught in the crime of turning water into wine, A.D. 1933. At His elbow stands an agent of the Law ready to clap Him into jail if and when the alcoholic content of the mixture shall exceed 3.2 per cent. Others in the group show expressions of agreeable expectation or sniffling disapproval in accordance with their several points of view.

It is certainly a most interesting composition and, to my mind, one which conveys a very timely message from a generally respected source.

A well-conceived picture can sometimes present an idea in a manner vastly more effective than words. That's just what Mr. Dewey's painting does. You can't refute what it has to say.

In A Social Way

One of the loveliest social events of the month was a card party and tea, given Tuesday afternoon of last week, by the Guild of St. Catherine, at beautiful "Italia Mia," the home of Miss Thomasella H. #### THANKS FROM P.T.A.

The P.T.A. would like to thank the Firemen for giving them the Candy Booth at the Wistaria this year, which has helped their milk fund along and it was certainly needed.

The Ways and Means Committee extend their thanks and appreciation for the co-operation they had from all in donations and making of candy and the help they had at the booth.

There is a District Convention at "Pasadena Auditorium" on April 27 and 28, that is open to all members of the P.T.A.

hostesses were Miss Jean Woodward, Mrs. Stella Dennison, Mrs. J. Wilfred Corr, Mrs. Grace Young, Mrs. William Lauren Rhoades and Mrs. H. Bledsoe. A number of local women entertained with private parties with local guests, and Mrs. W. J. Lawless was hostess to two tables of San Clemente friends.

Honoring the birthday of her mother, Mrs. Edson Smith, a surprise birthday party was given by Mrs. Harlan S. Gerlach at her home, 124 South Hermosa avenue, on Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edson Smith, Mrs. Catherine Roe, Mrs. H. Wagner, Mrs. L. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Emile Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Gerlach, of Sierra Madre; Mr. and Mrs. Finn, of Monrovia, and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Finn, of Upland.

Mrs. E. R. Thompson, of 99 North Hermosa avenue, entertained Mrs. R. Osterhout and Mrs. Augusta Coats, at luncheon on Monday.

Miss Annunciata Schiltz, of 67 East Highland avenue, entertained 12 members of Rho Zeta Epsilon Chapter No. 15, at cards and dancing at her home on Monday evening.

A surprise birthday party, honoring Frank L. Lovell, was given by 14 of Mr. Lovell's friends on Tuesday evening at his home, 235 Wilson avenue.

Mrs. John H. Robertson, as guest of Mrs. Frank Lindsay, chairman of Juniors for this district, attended a luncheon on Saturday at the Elbel Club, Los Angeles, in honor of Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, general federation president, from Washington, D.C. About one thousand women attended the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Arthur Grub, of 532 South Oakland avenue, Pasadena, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miriam Jeannette, of Peiping, China, to John Russell Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Davis, of 659 West Alegria avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. M. H. A. Peterson, of 57 East Central avenue, entertained at dinner on Sunday. Guests included Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Heidenreich, and children, Marilyn and Ellsworth, of Arcadia.

The Delphian Society met at the home of Mrs. R. L. Fitzwilliam, 341 Acacia Drive, on Thursday. Its subject for the day was "Sweden." General history of that country was reviewed.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Tedford, of the Hayden Gardens, were host and hostess at a lovely dinner party on Tuesday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Burbank.

NERVOUSNESS

EVERWHERE, under all conditions, in every climate, in every walk of life, in young or old, we find this common ailment.

All around us we hear the same weary despondent cry. "My nerves are bad." "I'm high strung." "I'm so excitable." "My nerves are simply shot to pieces." Always its nerves, nerves, nerves! For such people life is a perpetual panic.

This condition of the nerves which is known under various names, such as: nervousness, nerve exhaustion or depletion—hypochondria, neurasthenia, neurosis, etc., almost always without exception, has a definite physical basis—an underlying cause.

Although apparently strong and healthy people may display the various symptoms associated with "nerves," yet if we probe deep enough, we will find in practically every case actual physical weaknesses and derangements of tissues and organs which often without knowledge of the victim, have helped to bring on this condition of nervousness.

The person may look well, may be strong, have good muscle. His mental habits may be without fault, and yet his nervousness reduces life to a continuous horror.

The victim may be unconscious of any organic trouble. But some little point of nerve irritation may be sufficient to keep a physiologic electric bell ringing constantly, which will surely, sooner or later, exhaust the batteries, that must supply all the tissues of the body.

Unemployed Will Open Bakery And Tire Repair Plant

The Unemployed Relief Association of the area of which Sierra Madre is a part, has arranged for the establishment of a bakery and a tire retreading plant in connection with the area warehouse in Monrovia.

Neither enterprise will come into direct competition with privately owned business, their object being solely for the service of the unemployed. The bakery will turn out bread to be distributed among the various units comprising the area in the Western San Gabriel Valley between Pomona and Pasadena and will afford employment for a number of men in the baking and distribution.

The tire retreading plant was loaned the organization by City Business Manager Al S. Myers of this city, a member of the Advisory Council of the area and who was formerly in the tire business. The retreading work will be done for the unemployed at actual cost. Also it will keep the tires of the trucks gathering up and distributing surplus farm products and foodstuffs in repair.

The matter of concentrating supplies at the central warehouse from which they are exchanged and distributed has presented a serious transportation problem. The association is sorely in need of light trucks, donations of which would be of material benefit to the cause.

Mourning Friends Fill Church At Sea Funeral Service

Rites for Samuel Sea, 63, who passed away at his home, 198 West Montecito avenue, on April 18, were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Bethany Church. Rev. Stewart R. Sheriff, pastor of the church, conducted the services.

Frank Geiger, life long friend of the deceased, rendered the solo, "Shadows," by Harkness, and Mrs. Nell Fies, director of Bethany Choir, sang "No Night There." The church was crowded with friends, who gathered to pay their last respects. Pallbearers, friends of Mr. Sea during his residence here of about six years, were W. A. Evans, John Edwards, J. A. Scoville, Roy Edwards Sr., J. O. Smith and John Harvey.

Mr. Sea was born May 11, 1869, at Victoria, B.C., his family being among the early settlers of Vancouver Island. Interment took place in Sierra Madre cemetery.

Noted Speakers To Address Bethany Bible Conference

ston is an excellent speaker of wide experience and is always appreciated for her forceful and clear lessons.

Miss Henrietta Mears is director of young people's work in the Hollywood Presbyterian Church, and as a dynamic speaker is much in demand. Dr. C. E. Fuller has long been known as the strong pastor of Calvary Church in Placentia as well as for his radio broadcasts Thursday evenings and Sundays.

Sierra Madre is considered fortunate in having such a large group of outstanding speakers in her midst for two days, and every one is most cordially invited to enjoy the entire program.

Special music at all sessions is in charge of Mrs. Nell Fies. The male quartet composed of Laurence Limbaugh, Jack and Bob Jensen and Ben Smith will sing "We've a Story to Tell to the Nation"—a request number.

"The Spirit Filled Life" is the theme of the conference, the program for which follows:

Tuesday—10 a.m. "Our Living Lord," by Mrs. John Lowe; Special Music; 11 a.m., "Principles of Prayer," Miss Josephine Nelson; Luncheon; 1:30 p.m., "Wings," Miss Natalie Romans; Solo by Mrs. Nell Fies; 2:30 p.m., "Radiant Christian," Mrs. William B. Gantz; 7:45 p.m., "The Glories of Christ as Foreshadowed in Solomon's Temple," by Dr. Louis T. Talbot.

Wednesday—10 a.m., "Undimmed Radiance," Mrs. Harold Graham; Special Music; 11 a.m., "Walking in the Comfort of the Holy Spirit," Mrs. J. E. Jaderquist; Luncheon; 1:30 p.m., "Scientific Climbing," Miss Nola Johnston; Solo by Mrs. Nell Fies; 2:30 p.m., "The Changeling Christ," Miss Henrietta Mears; 7:45 p.m., "The Spirit-Filled Life" by Rev. Chas. E. Fuller.

BEAUTIFICATION work in Los Angeles County includes not only "sharing your flowers" and beautifying waste spaces" but also roadside beautification with particular reference to gas stations, eating stands, bill boards, parkways, water courses and street and stream railway rights of way.

This message was brought by J. S. Lyons, representative of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, to the Woman's Club at its regular meeting on Wednesday. Mr. Lyons has been chairman of City Beautification Committee of Los Angeles Realty Board and presented details of the work undertaken as well as discussing pending tax matters upon which financing of activities depend.

City Business Manager Al S. Myers, who was present, was called upon to interpret the planting situation in terms of what Sierra Madre is doing and expects to do. Mr. Myers explained that 70 acres in Bailey Canyon would be planted under the Roosevelt Federal Forestry plan and that Federal funds would be available for the work.

He said that further reduction in Sierra Madre's municipal budget would cut into the small appropriation available to carry on the various city services, since the fixed amount necessary to meet bond interest and retirement cannot be reduced. He developed the fact that a reduction in insurance rates has created a saving of $20,000 to the property owners of Sierra Madre.

Mr. Lyons suggested that a suitable manner of recognizing President's Day, Sunday, April 30, would be by planting trees and that parents should encourage their children to plant flowering shrubs on that day. Planting to beautify Los Angeles County is of actual commercial value, Mr. Lyons continued, as its attractiveness will most certainly cause visitors to make their permanent homes here. He praised Sierra Madre for its wealth of trees and its effort in Olympic parkway plantings last year, and urged that the work be continued.

Mrs. John H. Osgood, secretary of the City Planning Commission, led the discussion with the statement that more than 1500 parkway trees had been raised by the city and planted in the last three years. The desirability of flowering trees in parkways was referred to by Mrs. Osgood who suggested the Formosa Cherry tree as most desirable for this purpose.

Mrs. W. J. Lawless presented the program as chairman of the local Garden Section and Sierra Madre's representative on the County Beautification Committee. Mrs. Queen W. Boardman, vice-president of the National Plant Flower and Fruit Bureau, is active in the work in Los Angeles County. C. J. Williamson is chairman of the division that carries on Civic Beautification work for Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Luncheon of interest to women, sponsored by Miss Mary Foy, is to be given in the Green Room of the Women's Athletic Club, Los Angeles, at noon today. Speakers will discuss the economic and financial program of President Roosevelt, particularly in relation to public welfare work that women's organizations have sponsored. R. H. Howell will present his theory on a flexible gold content of the the gold dollar. Sierra Madre will be represented by Mrs. Grace Caukin, Miss Emma Jameson, Mrs. W. J. Lawless and Miss Ruth West.

The Garden Section invites club members to an Iris tea in the Lawless gardens, 506 West Grand View avenue, from 2 to 4 p.m. on Saturday of this week. Each guest is asked to bring an Iris bloom, preferably the most rare variety obtainable.

SUGGESTS PLAN FOR RELIEF OF JOBLESS

To the Editor of The Sierra Madre News:

Here is a suggestion for relief of the unemployment situation that is seems to me would work out to the satisfaction of everyone:

The State to furnish, for farming purposes, land, equipment, seed and water; the unemployed to volunteer to work on this land for one year's time; the products of the land to be used by the workers and any surplus to be turned over to a central warehouse, the workers to receive in lieu thereof, products than cannot be grown on the land. The land to be and remain under State supervision.

The State to furnish to these unemployed, housing, provisions, clothing and medical care until such time as the land shall produce sufficient to support the workers.

Wheel Fads Arrive Here With A Bang

City Shops On Rollers While Matrons And Girls Turn To Cycling

The bicycle and roller skating fads have hit Sierra Madre with a vengeance. Local merchants report that many of their customers do their shopping on skates, while City Clerk Waverly E. Pratt is authority for the statement that quite a number of the March water bills are being paid by persons who arrive at the City Hall on rollers.

Not all of the local girls who have gone in for cycling affect the extreme shorts that are being worn at the desert resorts and in Hollywood and Beverly Hills, but the girls and young women here have gone to wheels in a big way and it has become quite common to see them whizzing along Central avenue and pumping and puffing over the road to Sierra Madre Villa and up the Double Drive.

A group of local misses take a club spin every Saturday, but their riding is by no means confined to this excursion. Among those quite often seen astride wheels on the streets are Marjorie May Ashmore, Cynthia Hull, Jane Anderson, Dorothy Wals-

NOT CAPTAIN KIDD but "CAPTAIN KITTY"

one of the jolly pirates who'll welcome you to "Neptune's Electrical Extravaganza" Saturday, May 6 at Long Beach

By CNPA Service

With Saturday, May 6 definitely set as a day for "Rehabilitation Celebration" in Long Beach, on which the seaside metropolis will play host to the Southland, preparations are going ahead at a rapid rate for "Neptune's Electrical Extravaganza," the colorful illuminated maritime spectacle, which will climax the day's festivities. It will be staged in the Long Beach Marine Stadium, with entire proceeds going for earthquake relief, and is being heralded as the most outstanding production of its kind ever attempted.

In the past there have been pageants of illuminated floats, there have been water carnivals with aquatic parades, but this will represent a combination of all the entertainment arts. There will be the gorgeously decorated floats peopled with gaily costumed folk of all nations, and beautiful girls galore to please the eye, but in addition there will be leading vocalists and instrumentalists, operatic groups, musical comedy sextettes and various other musical groups to furnish ear appeal.

worth, Jane Manning and Shirley Chamberlain.

Some of the young matrons are still a bit shy about daylight appearance on their wheels and their, with others who with the assistance of husbands and brothers, are learning to ride, may be seen on the level East-West streets in the evenings. But the bicycle business is being discussed at all the card parties and plans are being discussed and formed that are bound to result in a lot of the women going awheel about the city shortly.

Devotees of the sport are learning that many rules of the road apply to them as well as to the motorists and motorcycle riders and in the larger cities, members of the new army of cycling enthusiasts have found themselves tagged by officers for infractions of traffic regulations.

The main principle upon which motor vehicle laws are based apply to bicycles as well as other modes of street and highway transportation. Some of the regulations with which bicycle riders should be familiar are cited as follows:

Every bicycle ridden upon a public highway from one-half hour after sundown to one-half hour before sunrise must be equipped with a headlight and red tail light or red reflector.

Bicycles must be operated on the right side of the street or highway, as near the right hand curb as possible, except when overtaking and passing another vehicle.

Cyclists must give a proper arm signal before turning or stopping, if such a movement will affect other vehicles, and they must also make signs before attempting to change their course that they can do so in safety.

Local regulations prohibit cycling on sidewalks or in pedestrian or equestrian paths such as those to be found in public parks.

BARLOW PICTURES TO BE SHOWN NEXT FRIDAY

The showing of Mrs. W. Jarvis Barlow's films which was postponed on account of the earthquake last month, will be given at the Parish House next Friday evening, May 5th. "The First American," one of the films, holds a personal interest as portions of it were made by Dr. Barlow during the annual ceremonies of Indian tribes at Albuquerque, New Mexico, four years ago.

The other film, "Grass," shows the semi-yearly migrations of a tribe living in the barren mountain region between the Persian Gulf and the Black Sea. They must find grass for their flocks or starve, and they risk their lives repeatedly in the search.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO HEAR ABOUT CONVENTION

Reports of the missionary conference in San Diego will be informally given by the local delegates at a meeting of the Woman's Society of the Congregational Church next Tuesday, May 2, during the sewing hour. Sewing will be started at 10 o'clock in the morning and each one is asked to bring her own sandwiches and coffee will be served at noon. A business meeting will follow at 2 o'clock.

Forum Admissions Not Subject To Tax Government Says

Mrs. W. J. Lawless, Miss Emma Jameson, Miss Ruth West and Mrs. R. O. Caukin of this City attended the Town Meeting at Pasadena Monday night. Dr. Frederick Roman discussed "The New Morality in Internationalism."

It was announced by Dr. Roman that after a decision had been handed down by the Internal Revenue Department approving the work of the "Forums, Associated" as being educational, and therefore not subject to the amusement tax. Records of all the meetings and speakers for the last three years were sent to the Department, and were the basis for the decision.

Regular weekly meetings are now being held in Santa Ana and San Diego as well as many other cities.

NEW PRICE SCHEDULE AT ARCADIA THEATRE

Excitements runs high in the film showing at the Arcadia Theatre, Huntington Drive, Arcadia, tonight and tomorrow, for "King of the Jungle" is a story of a real wild man—a boy brought up from early childhood by a pack of lions.

Buster Crabbe, swimming champion of international renown, plays the leading role remarkably well. Playing opposite Crabbe is Frances Dee, who has a way with her that tames the Lion Man's savage soul. A Paramount screen souvenir, comedy and cartoon complete the program.

Sunday and Monday "The Great Jasper," in which Richard Dix scores probably his greatest triumph, will be presented. Supporting Dix are Wera Engels and Edna May Oliver. A Mack Sennett Comedy, Hawaiian Fantasy and Rabbit Fur Fashion Review will add to the evening's enjoyment.

New prices of 15c at all times will become effective at the theatre on Sunday, April 30. The same high standard of entertainment will prevail and there will be no curtailment of the programs in any way.

Coming to the theatre on Thursday will be "Sign of the Cross," the picture which has sold out the box offices wherever it has been presented.

LOCAL WOMAN COACHES LONG BEACH PRODUCTION

Mrs. Mae W. Hicks, mother of Mrs. Waverly E. Pratt, of 667 West Grand View avenue, wrote and produced a beautiful seven episode Easter pageant, entitled "The Way of Easter Dawn," which was staged at the Municipal Auditorium, Long Beach, under the auspices of the Long Beach Music Study Club. Mrs. Pratt assisted her mother with the coaching and directing. The production was so enthusiastically received that a return engagement is being planned.

Surviving are her husband, Fred C. Albrecht; one daughter, Eunice; a brother, Robert Alton, of New York; an aunt, Mrs. F. S. O'Mara, of West Philadelphia, Pa., and an uncle, Charles Bulkeley, of Philadelphia, Pa.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Grant's Funeral Parlors, 201 West Central avenue. Interment was held at Sierra Madre Cemetery.

Mrs. Fred Albrecht Dies Suddenly At Alegria Ave. Home

Mrs. Marion Alton Albrecht passed away unexpectedly on Sunday evening at her home, 687 West Alegria avenue. She was born May 9, 1900, at Nashville, Tenn., coming to California about nine years ago and has resided in Sierra Madre for the past seven years.

D.U.V.C.W. Doings

By Lee High
Because of the benefit for the unemployed performance to be given the night of April 28, the D.U.V.C.W. have called off their barn dance scheduled to take place that evening. We feel that we should step aside for anything that will benefit the greatest number and help those that at this time are unable to help themselves.

We have decided on May 6th as being a night most suited for our chance to entertain. A Saturday night. Don't forget this date and we are going to keep it this time unless an earthquake comes along and shakes down the clubhouse. And if it leaves us the floor we will still have the barn dance. Watch for the posters! Every lady is to bring a box supper—the gentlemen will pay the price of admittance. You can dance all the evening, have a fine supper, coffee included, and a grand good time.

The twenty-fifth annual convention of this department of the D.U.V.C.W. will be held in Berkeley the week of May 14. The local tent is hoping to be able to send a representative.

Comrade Webster is recovering from a slight indisposition. He is planning to entertain the local tent of the D.U.V.C.W. at his home on Alegria street Thursday afternoon, May 4, with a formal tea.

A.L.A. Activities

By Dorothy Shetler

DELINQUENT members will be glad to know that the deal-line for paying up their membership dues has been advanced to April 30th, according to Mrs. Lora Smithson, 18th District President. Everyone under this heading should get in touch with Secretary Minnie Stinman at once.

President Barker sent a telegram to our Senator on Monday urging strong support on the Educational Bill No. 721. All units were requested to send wires in an endeavor to have this bill passed, as it is one of much interest to veterans' children.

On Wednesday, May 9, the units of the 18th District met at the Arcadia Clubhouse for the Child Welfare Dessert Bridge Party. As we understand the party is open to the public, fifty cents admission. This is an annual affair for raising special child welfare funds. Child welfare chairmen of the district will be hostesses for the day. Tickets can be obtained from President Barker, and she has an agreeable idea to present to members concerning purchase of the tickets. Call her for information as to tickets and transportation, at once.

Tomorrow, April 29, the Junior A.L.A. will hold their regular meeting at 2:30 p.m.

Members of the A.L.A. who were absent from the last meeting were quick to notice the black-draped charter in the Legion Headquarters. A solemn ceremony was performed at last meeting when Secretary Stinman read the resolution for draping the charter in memory of Mrs. Nettie Walker, who passed away. Past President Lucile Pickett, escorted by the Sergeant-at-Arms then draped the charter. Chaplain Miller read the prayer, followed by words of memory read by the President. The black drape will remain for a month, as is usual for departed members.

The most sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Ellen Evans, whose father, George E. Preston passed beyond. President Barker and Past President Pickett attended the funeral services as friends and Auxiliary members.

The A.L.A. extends to the members of Legionnaire Bowman's family their deepest sympathy. The funeral services for Mr. Bowman was conducted in St. Rita's Church Monday Morning. Mrs. Elizabeth Goodier represented the A.L.A. at the obsequies.

Haven't had time to hear all the whys and wherefores of the big luncheon held in the Patriotic Hall, Los Angeles, Thursday, April 27. The luncheon and the meeting following was in honor of Mrs. Laura Blackburn, National President of the U.S.A. Auxiliary. Local A.L.A. attending the interesting party was Mrs. Edith Woodruff, President Maybelle Barker and Mrs. Leila Embree.

The date has been set for the much discussed May Frolic to take place in Alhambra American Legion Clubhouse. Units from this part of the 18th District will take their turn as entertainers, the night of Friday, May 5, at 8 p.m. The admission has been made small enough that very few have an excuse to stay away. Adults will be charged fifteen cents and children, one jitzney. The money raised is to help the drill team girls put on their annual competition at the convention. Each unit is expected to have some act ready, and the only condition they must obey is regards to their particular entertainment is that it must be screamingly funny. President Barker has charge of transportation and tickets. Our unit intends to go and take many friends along. This affair should be a big kick! Note—Your inimitable scribe (!) always knew she was right there with the famous A.L.A. Activities column (?) But many Sierra Madre people were surprised, including Yours Truly, to read that she was considered a good enough reporter to write the Fire Flames. Really, if her name is going to appear in other columns, her manager must find it necessary to request the editor of The News to pad her pay envelope in the future!

ANSWERS TO QUERIES ABOUT CARE OF ROSES

By Jessie Ward Russell
Landscape Gardener

QUESTION—Should rose plants be located in beds or scattered about the garden among the shrubbery?

Answer—They should always be planted in beds by themselves.

Question—Should the rose bed have a sunny or shady location?

Answer—Full sun, always. Roses will bloom very poorly in the shade and will mildew.

Question—What part of the yard is the best for the rose garden?

Answer—If possible, in the rear of the yard. It should not be a conspicuous in the garden for the simple reason that some seasons of the year roses are dormant and not so ornamental then.

Q—Can roses still be planted in their bare roots?

A—No. They can be purchased now established in containers. It would not be safe to transplant a rose now unless it is established.

Q—Can roses be pruned now?

A—No. It is too late for this season. Dead wood and weak spindly growth can be taken out, but heavy pruning must wait until the blooming season is over and the plants are somewhat dormant again.

Q—What about pruning sucker growth?

A—Real sucker growth can and should be pruned out any time and it should be done as soon as suckers appear. But be sure it is sucker growth. Many people cut out the best blooming wood mistaking it for sucker growth.

Hold Avocado Show As Growers Gather At Annual Meeting

During the week beginning next Tuesday, May 2, and ending Saturday, the eighth annual California Avocado show will be held at Whittier at the corner of Painter and Walnut avenues. It will be of interest to all avocado growers to visit this show and study the different varieties of avocados on exhibition, and contact other avocado growers from all portions of the State.

The aim of the show is to promote the avocado industry and to educate growers with reference to the production of the many varieties of fruits which are being tried out as candidates for commercial rating.

The annual meeting of the California Avocado Association will be held at the Whittier Woman's Club House on Friday and Saturday, May 5 and 6. It will begin with a dinner in the dining room of the Woman's Club at 6:30 p.m. on Friday and all those interested in the avocado industry are urged to attend.

INFORM GROWERS ON CITRUS IRRIGATION

In order to acquaint growers with the many factors to be considered in a proper citrus irrigation program several irrigation meetings have been arranged to be held in the citrus areas of Los Angeles County.

The same irrigation program maintained year after year may suddenly be a very unsatisfactory one to follow, according to Assistant Farm Advisor W. H. Williams, and the trees may begin to go bad much to the consternation of the grower. The only satisfactory way of knowing how and when to irrigate will be thoroughly discussed.

The first two meetings will be held as follows: Tuesday, May 2, 2 p.m.—Wilbur Adams Place, 1955 North San Antonio, Pomona; Friday, May 5, 2 p.m.—Hurst Brothers "Buckeye" Ranch, West Covina Blvd., Covina (east of Azusa avenue).

NOTED PERSONALITY AT THE PLAYHOUSE

A noted personality of the English stage and recently seen in stage and screen plays in Hollywood and Los Angeles, May Beatty plays a leading role, with an all-British cast, in which Phyllis Barry, screen actress is featured, in "The Crime at Blossoms," Mordaunt Shairp's amusing satire of the morbidly curious, which opened Tuesday evening at the Pasadena Community Playhouse. Numbering more than twenty, all members of the cast are either of British extraction or have spent many years in the Empire.

Grower Back From Florida Sees Advantages That Come From Cooperation

"None of us are especially happy over our present orange marketing situation, but I am much happier to be connected with the citrus industry in this State rather than in Florida," was the statement of George Crawford, manager of the Northern Orange County Citrus Exchange, who recently returned from an eastern trip.

Mr. Crawford visited Florida and talked to growers and shippers there. He reports that they are shipping oranges of all grades from fancy to culls in all kinds of packages with little or no standardization. Marketing officials deplore the situation, but can do nothing about it because of the many competing factors in the deal. Even at present low prices on California Navel, the fruit is outselling Florida oranges 50 cents or more a box in eastern auctions.

"I was impressed by the efficiency of auction selling," said Crawford, who was inspecting eastern selling facilities for the first time. "No other system of selling our fruit equals the auction in rapid, large volume distribution, and the prices are such that they attract the best brands of Exchange and non-Exchange fruit alike," said he.

He commented upon the fact that interest centers on brands of oranges and lemons that are advertised and known to be dependable and regularly offered in any particular market. When a car of an unknown brand is offered, interest declines, and the price along with it.

Fire Flames

By one of the boys

LAST FRIDAY was the Auxiliary's night at the "Quarters" and they had a very good attendance. Altho' the Fire Flames is not permitted to attend their meetings, it is plain that the ladies, too, must have organized a "Southwest Corner." This undoubtedly accounts for the large attendance at all their gatherings. They also must have some very interesting things to chat about and evidently the outstanding conversation last Friday must have been fish. Very appropriate in more ways than one.

And now since Dorothy Shetler has become "one of the boys" according to last week's Fire Flames, we would be glad to see her at the Firemen's meetings. But don't bring that lucky husband along.

There will be no use of calling at the homes of Petzel, McMillan, or Tom Schwartz next Monday. Fishing season opens and they'll be along some stream or wabbling in an old tub on some lake, or dam. Steve has an old pole that he made from willows that grew along a river in Iowa.

Roy Walsworth has not been feeling so well of late and is on a strict diet. His wife says he is to eat nothing but meat, fish, oysters, abalone steaks, potatoes, carrots, cabbage, onions, garlic, spaghetti, etc., etc., but no bananas.

This is regular meeting night, if needs be told. As is customary, the trucks will leave the station for some unknown fire plug, where the men will go through the maneuvers of fire fighting. There is always enough argument and fun to prevent monotony.

Our Assistant Chief Norris has suffered for a long period with a very sore arm in which he contracted blood poisoning.

And now, since "beer is here" there hasn't been a great number of people anxious to drink it, or who will admit they are.

"Fire's Out."

Different Kind Of A Flower Show Aim Of Monrovia Club

Monrovia's second annual flower show to be held the afternoons and evenings of May 5 and 6 in the beautiful home gardens of the Little Studio Art Gallery of Gold Hill, will be different in its plans. No formal arrangements of plants and flowers in baskets and on tables but charming little gardens of various kinds and lovely flower arrangements in gay pottery bowls instead of stiff baskets are some of the "different" ideas of the show that is given by the Monrovia Foothill Garden club.

Entertainment features for the afternoons and evenings will be provided by the Gold Hill Players of Monrovia and include a lovely little Gypsy pageant and modern poetic pantomimes by the players. Fred Schwartz, president of the Garden Club assisted by many committees is working on plans to make the show unique in every detail, and more extensive in scope than that of last year.

One Big Job Of The Assembly

by RALPH H. TAYLOR
Sec. Agricultural Legislative Committee of California

POSITIVE action to assist California agriculture in limiting market supply to market demand and stabilizing commodity prices—perhaps the most important problem confronting the farming industry—appears likely to become one of the major accomplishments of the 1933 State Legislature.

Although there is still some possibility that the program will fail of legislative approval, present indications seem to augur well for enactment of the pro-rate commission bill, which is viewed as the sanest plan yet brought forth to deal with crop surpluses.

In broad interpretation, the general pro-rate bill permits the producers in the various branches of the farming industry, when necessity demands such action, to protect themselves against market demoralization by controlling under a pro-ration agreement, the movement of their products to market.

Yet the bill protects the individual rights of farmers by giving them the right of independent action in that they can market either independently or through a cooperation.

The pro-ration program, while it involves many complex problems, offers real hope that some demoralization of markets, due to crop surplus, and that prices may be stabilized at a point which will at least give the farmer some margin of profit.

SAFEGWAY COMPANY BUYS CHAMPIONS AT LIVESTOCK EXHIBIT

Sixty-two prize winning animals, among which were the grand champion steer, the grand champion lamb and the Chicago Livestock Show's Reserve champion setters, were purchased by the meat department buyers of Safeway Stores, Inc., at the Livestock and Baby Beef Show held last week in San Francisco.

This cattle naturally commanded premium prices, but the purchase was made in line with the program of selling only meats of highest quality, to which the Safeway organization is committed. It was also generally acknowledged that such purchases encourage young exhibitors to raise livestock of better quality, exerting a wholesome influence upon the cattle, hog and lamb growers industries while at the same time facilitating the distribution of champion meats to Safeway patrons.

old pioneer historian conceded. Their ceremonies, in which music and the dance rhymes were paramount, are traditional in their exactness and so far have been difficult to reproduce because of the difference in musical intervals and their scale to ours.

An exhibit of old time photos collected by William Lauren Rhoades, curator of the Society and his committee, Mrs. Fred Griebow and Miss Marion Vanier, discloses some interesting mementoes of the past.

Among the pictures shown were those of the original Town Hall, now known as the Adams Block, built in 1887 standing alone on Baldwin avenue; the Hart home and winery, now site of the City Park; the two room school house occupying the now business section between the bank and Hartman's store, with its group of children, among whom is John Osgood, Harvey Steinberger and the Carter girls; a photo of the large painting, a portrait painted by the first artist of Sierra Madre John Hardwick Lewis; the old two-horse bus; a picture of Anita Baldwin in riding saddle and one of her mother riding side-saddle on one of the famous Santa Anita Rancho horses.

Due to the absence of Mrs. Clarence Bowen, the secretary, Miss Lydia Webster was appointed secretary pro tem and S. R. G. Twycross was elected as third trustee to fill the place of Elmer A. Green, with the re-election of Dr. Pritchard and C. W. Jones as the other two.

A new member, Miss Leah Fletcher, was welcomed by the president, Mrs. H. I. Hawkhurst. The next meeting of the society will be in October, when further exhibits collected will be housed in a suitable case, at the Sierra Madre City School.

Big Cut In Cost Of Marketing Calavos

The report of the special efficiency committee of the Calavo Growers' Exchange, accepted by the exchange's directorate last Friday, will interest Sierra Madre calavo growers in that the estimated marketing cost for this season has been slashed now nearly $100,000 below that of last year. The report also reveals that local growers' net returns have averaged 29 percent higher per pound on calavo Fuertes over the first five pools this season, compared with those of last season, despite the far "harder" times this year.

Although estimated at $98,000 so far, this 36 percent reduction may run well over $100,000 by the end of the season, due to other budget cuts contemplated by the management and the efficiency committee. Of this 36 percent cost reduction, 15 percent is due to decreased crop and 21 percent to increased exchange efficiency. The reduction makes possible a large annual "refund," of which a partial will soon be paid growers, in addition to all pool payments.

Unemployed Accomplish Wonder Job

Gather And Distribute Enormous Food Supplies To Jobless And Needy Here

Telling in figures of the stupendous work being accomplished by the Unemployed Relief Associations throughout the San Gabriel Valley and foothill districts as well as in the county generally, the 1933 report of various of the units up to date was released yesterday by City Business Manager Al S. Myers.

A million and a quarter pounds of food have been distributed in 15 communities, and 267 manpower hours of work have been furnished. These figures are compiled from scattered communities, while in the district including Sierra Madre the summary of the food report is as follows: 35,735 rations were issued since January 1; 694,323 pounds of food were distributed; quarts of milk numbering 66,499 have been furnished the needy; nearly 30,000 pounds of bread were given away; and manpower hours numbered 114,906. The cities included Pomona, Altadena, San Gabriel, Covina, Alhambra, Monrovia, Baldwin Park, Pasadena and Sierra Madre.

Sierra Madre's unemployed association, second to none in per capita figures has turned over 10,569 manpower hours of labor, issued 1,576 articles of ration, distributed 12,936 pounds of food exclusive of the 3,285 pounds of bread, and 5,944 quarts of milk. In the three months from January through March, this city has through the Association, served 1500 meals to school children and homes in want. This compares very favorably with Pasadena, who with her tremendously superior resources served 9,600 meals in a two month period.

Fuller Romps Off With Close Match On Tennis Court

By Bill Hansen

After two hours of steady playing which saw first one and then the other ahead, Louis Fuller defeated Emile Smith two out of three sets of tennis on the local courts in City Park last Sunday. The first set went to Fuller at 6-2. Smith then steadied and took the next at 8-6. In the third set Smith had point-set on Fuller but the latter started working his vicious forehand shots. It was anybody's game until Fuller finally won 11-9.

Mr. Fuller is now second on the challenge board with Hiro Kaya first.

This Sunday Smith will again meet Fuller for another match. Smith will play a challenge match with Wes Perry next week and as they are the doubles champions of Sierra Madre, this match will be watched with keen interest.

GOOD BALL GAMES WITH ARCADIA SCHEDULED

The Sierra Madre Furniture Baseball team which has been in daily practice since its defeat at the hands of a team of unemployed citizens at Tujunga two weeks ago, will invade Arcadia next Thursday for a game with the strong All-Star team of that city. Win, lose or draw, the Arcadians will come here for a return game on the following Tuesday.

The Arcadia nine are members of Sierra Night League, having finished second in last season's pennant fight. When the locals, then known as the Sierra Madre All-Stars, played the Arcadians last year, the game went 10 innings.

Military Funeral For Legionnaire

Charles B. Bauman died here on Friday at his home, 267 North Baldwin avenue, following a prolonged illness. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bauman of St. Louis, Missouri, and came to the West Coast in 1909, residing in Oregon until America's participation in the World War, when he enlisted. At the close of the war he came to California and became a resident of Sierra Madre last August, coming here from Rosamond, Calif.

He is survived by his father, Charles Bauman, of St. Louis; a brother, J. T. Bauman of Mt. Angel, Oregon, and Rev. Father A. B. Bauman, of St. Louis. His brothers came to Sierra Madre for the funeral services which were held at 9 o'clock Monday morning at St. Rita's Shrine. The funeral was in charge of the Sierra Madre American Legion Post, members of which served as pall-bearers and the Post Bugler sounded taps when he was interred in Calvary Cemetery.

Locals Lose First Game To Pasadena

third and scored when Morris fumbled Pickett's grounder. Sierra Madre tied the score in the ninth when Hill singled and scored on Harkness' hit. Both sides were retired in order in the 10th.

Sierra Madre had their big chance in the tenth when with none out a runner was caught napping off second. The next man up singled on which the runner would have scored.

Pasadena scored three runs and won the old ball game in the first half of the 12th when a fumbled fly put the first batter up on third base. Three hits that followed did the rest of the damage. Sierra Madre made a heroic effort to save the game in its half of the 12th when it managed to get three men on with only one out, but poor base running ended the rally.

GREAT PICTURES AT THE LYRIC THEATRE

The most stupendous picture of the season, "The Big Cage," starring Clyde Beatty, the world's greatest daredevil, will be shown at the Lyric Theatre, Monrovia, this evening and Saturday. Cartoon, News and Novelty will complete the evening performances. The children have special entertainment in store for them tomorrow afternoon, when fun, prizes and songs are promised in conjunction with the regular program and the ninth episode of "Clancy of the Mounted."

The famous Barrymores, John, Ethel and Lionel will be shown Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in "Rasputin and the Empress." An Our Gang Comedy and news are added attractions. "Men Must Fight," with Lewis Stone and Diana Wynyard is scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday. A "Taxi Boys" comedy, which is enjoyed by the public as much as a feature picture, will be shown also, together with news events.

FORMER TEXAS WOMAN DIES AT SON'S HOME

Mrs. Lizzie Avirett, mother of Abby De Avirett, of 629 Alta Vista Drive, passed away on Saturday, April 22, at the age of 78 years. Mrs. Avirett had taken up residence here about three months ago. She was born in Round Rock, Texas, and had been a music teacher until her retirement four years ago. Her son is her only survivor.

Private services were held at Grant Funeral Parlors, 201 West Central avenue, on Monday.

First Roosevelt Postage Stamp Is Eagerly Awaited

Sierra Madre stamp collectors are anxiously awaiting the arrival here of the first postage stamp issued during the Roosevelt administration and intended to feature the celebration of "Presidents Day" on April 30, when the Nation through prayers and good thoughts will seek to strengthen the new president's hand.

The first of the issue was released in Philadelphia on April 19 and was due to go on sale at postoffices throughout the country April 25, though the local office has received no information as to when its order will arrive. It is expected daily, Postmaster Wright says.

The 150th anniversary of Washington's peace proclamation at Newburgh, N.Y., brought to the attention of Postmaster General Farley by Representative Hamilton Fish, of New York, is commemorated on the new stamp. Two weeks after its proposal the first die proofs of the Newburgh issue were officially passed on by President Roosevelt.

Due to the Bureau of Engraving and Printing's full working schedule on the manufacture of new paper currency, printing of the commemorative stamp was not begun until 10 days ago. The issue will consist of 75,000,000 stamps.

We can prepare for the future by studying the past.

Many Rare Shawls Are Brought Out At Exhibition Here

son, which was worn by Mrs. E. Newman Emmerson, well-known missionary of Sierra Madre, who passed away some years ago. Mrs. Emerson had to ride on horseback many miles on the sparsely settled plains, guided only by a compass and the sun.

Dr. May Culbertson Laidlaw, in a gown of black lace of the gay nineties, had among her exhibits a shawl of the vintage of 1845. A yellow and gold scarf of exquisite loveliness from Japan was the contribution of Mrs. Moto Sakamoto.

A silk shawl made around the camp fire was shown by Miss E. Mae Fuller.

A true Kasimur from India, in hand woven sections, has been in the possession of the family of Mrs. Nestor A. Young for over 125 years. A Persian antique, bought by Mrs. Donald Thayer in the Austrian Alps was an interesting exhibit. A chair, belonging to Senator Wadsworth's grandfather and given to the Johnson family over 80 years ago, and a home spun and hand woven cover, made in 1825, was exhibited by Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Jr., who also presented what is believed to be the original 13-star American flag, made in 1776 and taken from one of the battleships in the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

A Paisley shawl purchased soon after the Civil War as a gift for his bride, Mrs. Harriet Newell Smith, mother of Mrs. Franklin W. Swift, was shown by Mrs. Smith. A 70 year old Paisley was exhibited by Mrs. E. E. Bacon, an Italian head shawl by Miss Leah P. Fletcher; a 50-year old shawl by Mrs. Convers L. Twycross; shawl from Wales by Mrs. Delia Clark; 200-year old shawl by Mrs. Rathwell; very large Paisley by Mrs. C. E. Newman; 100-year old Paisley by Mrs. John Shaw; 75-year old lace shawl by Mrs. C. W. Bourne; 70-year old Paisley by Miss Peak; 80-year old cashmere by Dr. Laidlaw; 1830 shawl by Mrs. Bertha B. Miller; silk Italian shawl by Mrs. E. E. Bacon; 1832 silk shawl by Mrs. George Ferris; 100-year old black silk shawl by Mrs. W. P. Caley; 200-year old Paisley by Mrs. Alvin Langley; Indian blanket made by Wehaka or Whistling Indians of Mexico by Mrs. Nestor Young; Scotch shawl by Mrs. Louise Gray, and exhibits by Mrs. S. D. Coffin, Mrs. Brandon, Mrs. Hortense Hill, Mrs. E. E. Burbank, Mrs. John Osgood and Mrs. E. C. Foster.

Says Schools Will Suffer Most Thru State Budget Cuts

The school budget has been cut more in proportion than any other activity to which the State contributes, A. R. Clifton, superintendent of schools for Los Angeles County, declared on Tuesday evening at the local Grammar School, where a meeting in observance of the 14th annual Public Schools Week was held. Mr. Clifton illustrated his subject with charts. Charges that the schools have a powerful lobby in Sacramento were declared to be untrue.

The speaker was introduced by Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, principal, following a program including three selections by the school orchestra, and three songs by the fifth and sixth grades. Ralph Stewart, master of the local Masonic Lodge, under whose sponsorship the meeting was held, was master of ceremonies.

An exhibit of art work done by the children of the grammar school, was displayed in the lobby and the auditorium of the school. A story in pictures, drawn by the first grade, told of the trip to Old Ironsides. Stretched along the wall it showed the excitement and impressions of the youngsters. Figures made of paper and paste represented the study by the 6A class, of the middle-age costumes. The 5B group had a showing of animals made from the same materials. Colored maps, showing the important cities, well-known places and the roads of far lands, hung on the walls of the auditorium. A group of drawings depicting the life and struggles of pre-historic man was entered by the sixth grade.

Interment took place at Sierra Madre Cemetery.

Political Faction Here Tries To Halt Bill In Assembly

to the editor of THE SIERRA MADRE NEWS from former Mayor N. N. Multer, of Arcadia, who was sent to Sacramento to observe pending legislation by the Allied Chambers of Commerce of the San Gabriel Valley. Mayor Multer's letter follows:

Sacramento,
April 24, 1933.

To the Editor of The Sierra Madre News.

Dear Sir:
"I have been in Sacramento for several weeks in daily attendance at the session of the Legislature representing the San Gabriel Associated Chambers of Commerce, comprising 22 cities and towns in the San Gabriel Valley, of which Sierra Madre is one.

Most of my time has been devoted to the passage of bills for the relief of assessment payers in those Mattoon Act Highway Assessment Districts where the assessments were confiscating their property.
"I also aided in the passage of Assembly Bill 2347, introduced by Assemblyman Frank G. Martin of your district, which will permit, for a period of one year only, cities of the 6th class to avail themselves of donated funds from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to pay for the labor only for the improvement of dirt streets, the costs of the materials used to be assessed to the abutting property owners without the expense of issuing bonds, as under the 1911 act.

"This bill provides that before any City Council can institute proceedings under this act it must have a petition on file signed by eighty per cent of the abutting property owners, subject to a protest after a duly called hearing; that it cannot be used at all where there is an existing street assessment, and that the assessment shall be limited to ten per cent of the assessed valuation of the property.

"Section 17 of the bill specifically provides that it shall be used only under the provisions of the Special Assessment, Investigation, Limitation and Mapority Protest Act of 1931.

"A day or two ago an Assemblyman with whom I was talking pulled from his waste basket and handed me a circular letter purporting to have been sent out by the Sierra Madre Improvement and Protective Association and signed by H. J. Kohl, containing a scurrilous attack on Mr. Martin for introducing this bill and containing many false statements reflecting on him—insinuating that he was representing special interests intent on breaking down the debt limitation act.

"As each assemblyman had a copy of this bill on his desk when the circular was received and knew it was untrue, they were mostly consigned to the waste basket and the bill was passed with only four dissenting votes. In justice to Mr. Martin I am inclosing you a copy of this bill as passed and as I think it is a good bill I shall continue to work for its passage in the Senate."

TWENTY-FIVE LOCAL ANGLERS READY FOR MAY 1

The fishing season opens May 1. At least 25 Sierra Madreans are awaiting sunrise on Monday to try their luck. Licenses had been issued early this week to Harlan Gerlach, Judge Tom Neale, R. C. Copenhagen, Gordon MacMillan, George McRoberts, Jr., Frederick Scalzo, Al Myers and Waverly Pratt.
